SLR Camera Bag
Amateur and professional photographers alike use the Aperture to deftly carry and protect their SLR cameras. An amply padded main compartment with removable dividers provides protection for two lenses and an SLR body.

An abundance of accessory compartments and exterior tripod tie-down straps ensure you have all your essential gear. The inclusion of a rear-facing zippered security pocket, and a contoured, padded shoulder strap make the Aperture an excellent travel companion.

To keep contents protected in all weather conditions, the Aperture has an integrated stow-away water-resistant weather cover and anti-dust side flaps for use in sand, snow, rain, or dust.
